

CEJA Development Director Job Description

The California Environmental Justice Alliance (CEJA) is a statewide coalition of grassroots, community-based organizations. We organize in communities most impacted by environmental issues – low-income communities and communities of color – to advance statewide policy that protects the environment and our health. We have six core members and three partners across California: the Asian Pacific Environmental Network; Center for Community Action & Environmental Justice; Center on Race, Poverty, and the Environment; Central Coast Alliance United for a Sustainable Economy; Communities for a Better Environment; Environmental Health Coalition; Leadership Counsel for Justice and Accountability; People Organizing to Demand Environmental & Economic Rights; Physicians for Social Responsibility-Los Angeles; and Strategic Concepts in Organizing and Policy Education (SCOPE). CEJA is in a period of growth and exciting work, and we are looking for someone to help sustain and expand this trajectory.

JOB TITLE

Development Director

Position Description

The Development Director will develop and implement strategies for fund development at CEJA. The Director will be responsible for growing CEJA's annual budget, including maintaining and developing relationships with funders, developing new prospects, ensuring all grant reporting and proposals are completed, as well as developing strategies to diversify CEJA's funding sources. They will be responsible for supervising CEJA's part-time Grant Writer.

REPORTING RELATION/LOCATION

The fiscal sponsor for the California Environmental Justice Alliance is the Environmental Health Coalition (EHC), a member of CEJA. The Development Director will be an employee of EHC and will be covered by that organization's salary ranges, benefits, office rules and structure. The Development Director will report to the CEJA Executive Director in LA, and can be based in the Bay Area or Los Angeles.
